Dongo: ultima azione

2021-01-28T00:00:00+01:00

È il 26 aprile 1945 quando il partigiano Pedro comandante della 52a brigata Garibaldi Luigi Clerici giunge ad appena 25 anni al suo appuntamento con la grande storia la cattura di Benito Mussolini. Pedro ci offre in questo libro un racconto vivido e preciso dell'evento di cui fu artefice e protagonista scritto sulla base dei genuini appunti vergati in quei giorni insieme a Bill Dongo. Ultima azione va sulle tracce di quel piccolo gruppo di partigiani che riuscì a disarmare una munitissima colonna tedesca cui era stato affidato Mussolini ma narra anche la dura vita di montagna, gli aspri rifugi alpini, le speranze e i timori dei partigiani intenti a combattere e lottare per liberare l'Italia dall'oppressione nazifascista.

Globalizing the student rebellion in the long '68

This volume brings us closer to the dynamics of the educational world especially students from a wide range of national and regional scenarios with a special focus on Europe and Latin America. In this way a plural panorama is shown in which the stories centered on the usual protagonists of the 1968 processes are accompanied by other scenarios often considered secondary but which this volume inserts in a more general story that helps us understand how the processes of the 60s were not concrete or national but got an absolute regional and global significance. We see a complex process of transnational demand that ranged from Eastern Europe included in the Soviet bloc to the very heart of the Western Hemisphere with the United States as the main axis passing through the politically varied Western Europe submitted to the same processes and cultural influences. In this sense to the works that deal with the United States and France are added others focused on Italy, Spain and Brazil as priority focus areas together with other European and Latin American landscapes: Great Britain, Portugal, Greece, Slovakia, Hungary, Chile, Uruguay and Mexico. Without missing in addition the case of one of the most unique actors on the international scene, the State of Israel. With this volume we want to continue advancing in the knowledge of the educational world of the second half of the 20th century. Great are the challenges of this world at the beginning of the 21st century and many of them were already evident in 1968. Others have materialized as a result of those events to confront both of them we must first identify and analyze them as well as being aware of their magnitude. We hope that all this work can contribute to this aim.

looking at five of italo calvino's often neglected early novels the young people of po the cloven viscount the baron in the trees the non-existent knight and the watcher eugenio bolongaro argues that these works written between 1948 and 1963 contain a sustained meditation on the role of the intellectual and on the irreducible ethical and political dimension of literature this meditation provides an insight into a crucial moment in calvino's development as a writer and allows bolongaro to lay the groundwork for a more political reading of calvino's later work italo calvino and the compass of literature firmly situates calvino within his historical context the cultural revival of post world war ii italy by relating these early novels to calvino's political and critical writings which played an important role in the cultural debates of the time this approach provides a key to understanding calvino's work in a new light ably demonstrating that calvino's full literary significance cannot be understood in isolation from the politics and cultural movements of the period one of the few book-length english language works on calvino's early writings italo calvino and the compass of literature will prove to be an indispensable tool to italianists and literary studies scholars

this book argues that contemporary italian history has been marked by a tendency towards divided memory events have been interpreted in contrasting ways and the facts themselves often contested moreover with so little agreement over what happened and why it happened it has been extremely difficult to create any consensus around memory these divisions have been seen at all levels but take on particular importance when linked to the great traumatic and life changing events of the twentieth century war terrorism disaster but can also be applied to more cultural fields such as sport and everyday life social change also has an impact on memory this book will take the form of a voyage through italy and into italy s past looking at stories of divided memory over various periods in the twentieth century these stories will be interwoven with analysis and discussion

Beppe Fenoglio and English Literature

Beppe Fenoglio (1922-1963) is one of Italy's major postwar writers. His contemporary Italo Calvino described one of his novels, Una questione privata, as the work that his generation had dreamed of writing, but it is Fenoglio's posthumously published Il partigiano Johnny, based on the author's experience as a partisan in the Langhe hills during World War II and written in an intriguing mixture of Italian and English, which is considered to be his masterpiece. This new in-depth study argues that Il partigiano Johnny can best be interpreted by understanding the complex narrative techniques that Fenoglio employs and by firmly placing the work within its historical context. It also proposes a new solution to the puzzle of the language of this fascinating and complex work.

this volume proposes a rich corpus of papers about the other city a subject only few times dealt with but worthy of all our attention it imposes itself on the scene of international modern and contemporary historiography for its undeniable topicality throughout history the city has always had to deal with social otherness i e with class privileges and consequently with discrimination and marginalization of minorities of the less well off of foreigners in short with the differences in status culture religion so that the urban fabric has ended up structuring itself also in function of those inequalities as well as of the strategic places for the exercise of power of the political military or social control of the spaces for imprisonment for the sanitary isolation or for the temporary remedy to the catastrophes from the first portraits of cities made and diffused at the beginning of the fifteenth century for political exaltation purposes or for religious propaganda and for devotional purposes which often through increasingly refined graphic techniques distort or even deny the true urban image we reach at the dawn of contemporary history the new meaning given by scientific topography and new methods of representation these latter aimed at revealing the structure and the urban landscape in their objectivity often unexpected for who had known the city through the filter of regime iconography the representation of the urban image still shows the contradictions of a community that sometimes includes and even exalts the diversities other times rejects them showing the unease of a difficult integration
