how does a real life zen master not the preternaturally calm cartoonish zen masters depicted by mainstream culture help others through hard times when he s dealing with pain of his own how does he meditate when the world is crumbling around him is meditation a valid response or just another form of escapism these are the questions brad warner ponders in zen wrapped in karma dipped in chocolate during a year that warner spent giving talks and leading retreats across north america his mother and grandmother died he lost his dream job and his marriage fell apart in writing about how he applied the buddha s teachings to his own real life suffering warner shatters expectations revealing that buddhism isn t some esoteric pie in the sky ultimate solution but an exceptionally practical way to deal with whatever life dishes out a tour de force guide to zen master dogen s most subtle and sophisticated philosophical premises that being and time are inseparable impermanence is time itself being itself yet time and being are not at all as we imagine them to be to really understand and fully embrace this point is to live in a radically different world a world of awakening inclusion and love zen master dogen frames the teaching on impermanence explicitly as a teaching about time and all of dogen s profoundly poetic teachings flow from his seminal understanding of time as expressed in uji being time the famous and famously difficult essay in his masterwork shobogenzo in uji dogen teaches that time itself being itself is luminous awakening it is all inclusive all elusive ultimately healing and eternal in this book shinshu roberts does full justice as does no other book i know of to dogen s words she offers interpretation of uji only after careful consideration and marshaling of many sources and offers simple everyday examples to illustrate points that seem at first abstruse if this text causes you to doubt your most cherished concepts about your life it will have done its work from the foreword by norman the purpose of a reclusive monk such as myself audaciously presenting a volume like this is to transmit the true dharma and the great compassion of buddha in doing this i wish to highlight the fact that the heart sutra is an outstanding guidebook for the path to liberation and for the practice of the buddha way this sutra describes the ultimate path in a most straightforward manner i would like you to know that by exerting yourself daily in the way it describes the time will come without a doubt when the results of your effort will manifest master kido inoue to fully understand the meaning of the heart sutra one cannot simply follow or have faith in what it says without detailed analysis the heart sutra cannot be fully grasped with pure intellect alone practicing the true way requires you to throw away all things and to forget the ego when the words are approached with both the mind and the heart its full understanding will naturally be revealed through practice because of this the guidance of a real dharma master or roshi such as master kido inoue is required here he shares his teachings in a straightforward and honest fashion this buddha dharma scripture is a quintessential and wondrous discourse imparted by h h dorje chang buddha iii when a rinpoche respectfully requested a discourse on the dharma relating to the question what is cultivation this is a very fundamental lesson in buddhism indeed the first lesson nonetheless this is an important matter that many cultivators including those who have practiced cultivation over many years do not understand and are confused about it is difficult to incarnate as a human being it is even more difficult to incarnate as a human being with the opportunity to encounter the true buddha dharma the essence of learning buddhism lies with carrying out what we learn in our cultivation therefore we must first understand what cultivation is only after that is one able to leave the cycle of reincarnation liberate from all suffering become a holy being and persevere until becoming a buddha there d gen is known for his extensive writing including the treasury of the eye of the true dharma dharma or sh b genz a collection of ninety five fascicles concerning buddhist practice and enlightenment the primary concept underlying d gen s zen practice is oneness of practice enlightenment in fact this concept is considered so fundamental to d gen s variety of zen and consequently to the s t school as a whole that it formed the basis for the work shush gi which was compiled in 1890 by takiya takush of eihei ji and azegami baisen of s ji ji as an introductory and prescriptive abstract of d gen s massive work the sh b genz treasury of the
